

This eBook checkout guide is good for any and all devices!

Provided by Marshalltown Public Library.

Note: Only Marshalltown residents and residents of rural Marshall county (not living in another town) may checkout eBooks and audiobooks on Bridges through the Marshalltown Public Library. Haverhill and Ferguson are allowed to use Bridges through the MPL. For tablets, use the internet browser on the tablet. If you have a black and white eReader, you will need to use a computer. The web browser on the black and white models does not support the check out and download process.

1. Go to www.marshalltownlibrary.org and click on the Bridges icon in the middle of the page or you can go straight to the website at bridges.lib.overdrive.com

Download eBooks & audiobooks for free eBook software Audiobook software Who's eligible to use BRIDGES?

2. Click the sign in button in the upper corner

3. Type in Marshalltown Public Library, usually when you start typing it pops it up.

4. Once you have the name in, a box will appear underneath that says "Marshalltown Public Library users, please click below to sign in. Don't click below, click the actual blue link (the words)." A blue arrow points to the circled text in the next screenshot.

5. Type in your library card number, the whole number with no spaces and then click the Login button.

8. Just like at the library, sometimes books are checked out. When we purchase an eBook, we purchase the rights to one copy. If a book is checked out, the icon in the corner will be gray, if its available ,it will be black. If a book is checked out, you can put it on hold Instead of "Borrow" it will say "Place Hold". Just click that and it will ask for your email address. The website will email you when it comes available. You then have 3 days to check it out before it moves on.

9. When you do a search, or use the menu to search a collection, a menu will come up so you can filter your search. This is very handy. If you want to check out a book now, you can click "Available Now" and see only titles available right now. If you want a Kindle book (not all books have a kindle format) you can click "Kindle Book" so only options come up that have a Kindle format. You can also filter for genre (mystery, romance, or in non fiction by subject).
